

GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY

Randolph, Roxbury, Morris Hills triumph

By Jim Lambert

In a battle between the top two teams in the state, Shawnee, No. 1 in The Star-Ledger Top 15, averaged 19:05 and put four runners in the top 10 to defeat No. 2 Toms River East, 43-53, and retained its NJSIAA South Jersey, Group 4 girls' cross-country championship yesterday on Kingsway's flat course in Swedesboro.

Abbey Hartman of Ocean City, the 1995 Group 3 champion, won the South Jersey, Group 4 title in 17:49, the fastest time in yesterday's state competition. Also in South Jersey, Brick, the 1995 Group 3 champion, defended successfully, Point Pleasant Boro rolled in Group 2 and Schick, second to Maple Shade last year, averaged that defeat with a 48-52 margin in Group 1. Amy Berkyn of Pine-lands, one of the favorites to win the state Meet of Champions, won the Group 2 title in 18:00.

The top 10 finishers in each group in each section qualified for Saturday's state group championships at Holmdel Park. The top three teams and 10 individuals who do not run for one of the qualifying teams will earn a ticket into the Meet of Champions on Nov. 23 at Holmdel.

In Central Jersey at Holmdel Park, No. 7 Hunterdon Central, with Beth Crawford winning in 19:56, defeated No. 12 Middletown South, 49-60, and No. 10 Bridgewater-Raritan was third with 89, in Group 4. Ocean Township, second last year, made it three titles in four years in Group 3. No. 5 Ridge, led by Meghan Ganey with a winning 20:00, repeated in Group 2. Metuchen captured its first title in Group 1.

In North Jersey, Section 1 at Garret Mountain in West Paterson, No. 3 Ridgewood, led by Celeste Sedo in a championship 18:24, edged No. 15 Hackensack, 33-39, to win its fifth straight Group 4 title. The outcome might have been different if Hackensack's Jackie Martin, All-State in 1994, didn't fall. Martin didn't finish the race.

Northern Highlands repeated in Group 3. Dana Satir finished first in 19:05.8 to lead No. 14 Ramsey to a successful defense in Group 2 and Bogota made it two straight in Group 1.

One of the tightest and most dramatic team battles occurred in North Jersey, Section 2 at Warranaco Park in Elizabeth, where No. 8 Randolph scored 41 points to edge 1994 and '95 champion Westfield, second with 45. Columbia, led by individual champion Catherine Casey, who ran 20:14, was third with 54. Randolph was a big favorite to win until All-State sophomore Stephanie Snyder was sidelined for the season with tendinitis in her right quadricep.

Leading Randolph's charge was sophomore Beth Jones, who ran her best race of the season. Jones was third in 20:21.

"Beth certainly was a big reason we won," said Randolph coach Len Pietrewicz. "We knew that Westfield and Columbia were going to be coming after us. I just told the team that we worked too hard to walk away with nothing. Losing Stephanie hurt us, but we knew we could still do it."

Morris County cleaned up at Warranaco by winning all four girls' titles and three of the four boys' championships.

Roxbury knocked off No. 6 Mt. Olive, 35-42, to win Group 3 and capture its first sectional title. Mt. Olive, which ran without freshman Marianne Herbst, who has pneumonia, had won three straight championships. One of the keys for Roxbury was freshman Jodi Boesgaard, who finished 15th in 22:10, six places ahead of Mt. Olive's fifth runner.

"She was the difference for us," said the first-year Roxbury coach, Bob Beers, whose team was third behind champion Mt. Olive and Randolph at last week's Morris County Championships. "We pointed to this meet all year and we were able to put it all together."

Cheryl Bauer continued her sensational sophomore season by winning the Group 2 race in 19:41 to lead
